

USC Gould School of Law, USC Center for Gender Studies and USC Sociology Department present

REFRAMING THE WELFARE QUEEN:

Work, Privacy and Reproductive Freedom

The conference will ask:

What can we learn about the State's response to the threat of the Welfare Queen and what role can progressive theorists play in imagining policy alternatives?

Pre-conference
lecture on Thursday,
April 23 at 4 p.m.
with Dorothy Roberts, acclaimed scholar of race, gender and law.

FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 2015

9:00AM to 6:00PM

USC GOULD SCHOOL OF LAW,
FACULTY LOUNGE

CONFERENCE IS COMPLIMENTARY, BUT SPACE IS LIMITED.

RSVP at: <http://law.usc.edu/go/welfarequeen>

USC Gould
School of Law

Questions, contact Erin Johnson at 213-821-1239
or email: facserv@law.usc.edu