

The USC Center for Law, History & Culture and the Gould School of Law

present

The 16th Annual Law & Humanities
Distinguished Lecture

CAN FREEDOM AND EQUALITY STAND TOGETHER?

Eugène Delacroix, Liberty Leading the People, 1830

Thursday, February 15th, 2018

4:00 – 5:30 p.m.

Doheny Library, Room 240

Reception to follow

presented by

Michael Walzer

Professor Emeritus of Social Science,
Institute for Advanced Study

USC Gould
School of Law

To RSVP, reply to Katie Steele at clhcserv@law.usc.edu or call 213-821-1239.

For additional information, visit our website at <http://weblaw.usc.edu/centers/clhc>