The USC Center for Law, History and Culture and the Gould School of Law presents
The 17th Annual Law and Humanities Distinguished Lecture

WAS JUSTICE TANEY RIGHT?

Fighting for Citizenship in the United States

Thursday February 21
4:00 – 5:30 p.m.
Doheny Library, Room 240
Reception To Follow

Annette Gordon-Reed
Charles Warren Professor of American Legal History, Harvard Law School;
Professor of History, Harvard University

RSVP to Erin Johnson
cilhcserv@law.usc.edu
213-821-1239
http://weblaw.usc.edu/centers/cilhc