INSTITUTE FOR CORPORATE COUNSEL®

A Partnership of In-House and Outside Counsel

Who Are We?

The Institute for Corporate Counsel is a collaboration of the USC Gould School of Law and the Los Angeles County Bar Association Business Law Section. For over 40 years, the Institute has been the premier annual event at which in-house and outside counsel gather to compare notes, keep abreast of key legal developments and network with colleagues.

Practical Advice and Take-Aways

You need to understand your clients' economic and business environment to properly represent them. To that end, the Institute focuses on new developments in law, business and politics that affect business and legal professionals in Southern California and provides insight into best practices and changes in the law that impact local and national business operations.

Who Should Attend?

The Institute is crafted to meet the needs of in-house counsel and those professionals who work with them, including: outside attorneys • accountants • compliance officers • consultants • corporate officers and directors • diversity officers • financial planners • HR professionals • investors • legal administrators • legal assistants • legal technology specialists • librarians • litigation support professionals.

Keynote Speaker

HON. TANI CANTIL-SAKAUYE (RET.)

FORMER CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE CALIFORNIA SUPREME COURT

HON. TANI G. CANTIL-SAKAUYE (RET.) joined ADR Services, Inc. in 2023 after a lifelong career of serving the law with integrity. She previously served as the 28th Chief Justice of California.

A native of Sacramento, California, Chief Justice Cantil-Sakauye graduated from the University of California, Davis, with a degree in rhetoric before earning her J.D. from UC Davis School of Law. She began her legal career as a Deputy District Attorney in Sacramento County, where she spent four years prosecuting numerous felony and misdemeanor cases in jury trials to verdict. After that, she served on the senior staff of Governor George Deukmejian in two capacities: first as Deputy Legal Affairs Secretary and later as Deputy Legislative Affairs Secretary.

Chief Justice Cantil-Sakauye has served for 32 years on California appellate and trial courts, and has been appointed or elevated to higher office by three governors. In 1990, Governor Deukmejian appointed her to the Sacramento Municipal Court and in 1997, Governor Pete Wilson elevated her to the Superior Court of Sacramento County. As a Superior Court Judge, she established and presided over the first court in Sacramento dedicated solely to domestic violence issues. In addition, Chief Justice Cantil-Sakauye chaired the court's criminal law committee and was a member of the Presiding Judge's task force on domestic violence and the Home Court committee. In 2005, Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger appointed her to the Third District Court of Appeal.

After Governor Schwarzenegger nominated her as Chief Justice of California on July 22, 2010, the California State Bar Judicial Nominees Evaluation Commission rated her as exceptionally well-qualified for the position. At a public hearing on August 25, 2010, she was unanimously confirmed by the Commission on Judicial Appointments, and in a statewide general election on November 2, 2010, she was elected by an overwhelming majority of California voters. She was sworn into office on January 3, 2011, becoming the first person of color, first Asian-Filipina American, and the second woman to serve as the state's Chief Justice.

As Chief Justice of the California Supreme Court, Chief Justice Cantil-Sakauye was responsible for all administrative, budget, and policy decisions of the highest court in the state, while maintaining the same caseload and duties as the Associate Justices, including deciding petitions for review, extraordinary writs, and authoring court opinions that resolved the most important and conflicted areas of California law. Her tenure on the Supreme Court was marked by her rigorous analysis of legal issues and her commitment to upholding the rule of law. Additionally, she served as Chair of the Judicial Council of California, the administrative policymaking body of state courts, and the Commission on Judicial Appointments.

CONCURRENT SESSION TRACK B

The Transition to a New Energy Economy: Key Issues and Challenges on the Path to the Future

California leads the world in planning the transition to clean energy with its multi-trillion dollar investment opportunities. Following the November elections, this panel will analyze how and whether the state can achieve its ambitious decarbonization goals. The panel will discuss the latest regulatory mandates for renewable energy, the transportation sector, new disclosure and reporting requirements, and some of the largest and most innovative greenhouse gas controls, including carbon capture and storage projects and the carbon credit markets. The speakers will also delve into current concerns and obstacles for project developers including permitting, subsidies, tax incentives, and what the equity and debt markets will demand to provide the necessary financing. Every business can benefit from this presentation to plan their sustainable future in the new California economy.
