

USC Gould School of Law
TAX INSTITUTE

January 27-29,
2025

Sheraton Grand,
Los Angeles

Since 1948, the USC Gould School of Law Tax Institute has been the essential three-day event for tax professionals, providing an in-depth examination of the hottest tax law issues and the latest business perspectives of expert speakers from across the nation and internationally.

Day 1 — Corporate Tax Planning

The Institute will begin with a review of recent developments in corporate tax planning and business tax planning issues.

Day 2 — Partnerships, Real Estate, Tax Enforcement and more

Three concurrent tracks focus on partnerships and real estate, high-net worth families and individuals, and tax ethics, compliance and enforcement issues.

Day 3 — Estate Planning

The final day focuses on recent developments and current trends impacting estate planners and those who administer estates and trusts.

Stay tuned for more details coming soon!

GOULD.LAW/TAX