ADR Speaker Series

PRESENTED BY THE GOULD DISPUTE RESOLUTION SOCIETY

Meet and network with ADR professionals in an intimate, informal setting.

Steve Cerveris, Principal, CERVERIS MEDIATION

Steve Cerveris is a full-time independent mediator as well as an Adjunct Professor of Law at Loyola Law School in Los Angeles. Following a thirty-year legal career to representing Plaintiffs and Defendants as a trial attorney in various areas of litigation, Steve now devotes his time exclusively to providing mediation services to those involved in litigated matters. He is recognized as a California “Top Neutral” by the Los Angeles and San Francisco Daily Journal; as a Southern California “SuperLawyer” in the field of Alternate Dispute Resolution by Law & Politics and Los Angeles Magazines since 2006; and is a Distinguished Fellow of the International Academy of Mediators.

Katherine Greenwood, University Ombuds,
USC University Park Campus

Katherine Greenwood, JD, PhD is the University Ombuds for the UPC Campus. Kathie is a Certified Organizational Ombudsman Practitioner, CO-OP® and an active member of the International Ombudsman Association (IOA) where she serves on the Government and Policy Committee and as an IOA Mentor. Kathie has extensive background as a mediator in academic settings. In addition, she is also a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach, CPCC™, a Gallup-Certified Strengths Coach, a Certified MBTI Myers-Briggs Trainer and a Certified Crucial Conversations® Trainer. Prior to stepping into the ombuds role, Kathie practiced maritime law domestically, in state and federal courts, and internationally. Previously, she served as the Director of the Ombuds Office at the UC Davis and UC Davis Health Sacramento campuses and as the Ombuds at the University of Colorado Denver. Kathie is available for individual consultations, group facilitations, mediations, coaching and training on communication and conflict management topics.
