

SAVE THE DATE: THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 2020

Please join USC Gould and JAMS at the USC Ronald Tutor Campus Center for an Entertainment ADR Symposium:

Is There Still No Business Like Show Business? ADR Challenges & the Evolution of New Media

This full day of substantive programming will include interactive sessions to address new media disruption within the entertainment industry and the legal dispute resolution challenges we will face. Three panels of prominent entertainment lawyers and executives will provide thoughtful commentary. A hosted reception will follow. California MCLE credit to be provided. Visit <https://gould.usc.edu/events/entertainment-adr-2020/> for details.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS: Jeffrey Cole, Director of the USC Center for the Digital Future

LUNCH PROGRAM: Jimmy Iovine and Dr. C. L. Max Nikias discuss the USC Iovine Young Academy, disruptive innovation, the convergence of arts, business and technology, lessons of the past, and creating the future

PLANNING COMMITTEE: Richard Chernick (co-chair), Howard Miller (co-chair), Scott Edelman, Dan Floyd, Bryan Freedman, Patricia Glaser, David Huebner, Rob Klieger, Jon Pastor, Richard Peterson, Deborah Saxe, Sahar Shiralian, Larry Stein, Richard Stone, Naomi Waltman, Howard Weitzman

CONFIRMED PROGRAM CO-SPONSORS:

- Charles J. Bakaly, Jr.
- Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP
- Glaser Weil
- Hueston Hennigan LLP
- Jenner & Block
- Kinsella Weitzman Iser Kump & Aldisert LLP
- Munger, Tolles & Olson LLP
- Russ August & Kabat

USC Gould
School of Law

