INSTITUTE FOR CORPORATE COUNSEL

A Partnership of In House and Outside Counsel

Top Speakers

The Institute will feature California Supreme Court Justice Ming W. Chin, former Administrator of the U.S. Small Business Administration Maria Contreras-Sweet, former California State Assembly Speaker Curt Pringle, retired Ambassadors David Huebner (JAMS) and Nina Hachigian (L.A. Deputy Mayor for International Affairs), ICC International Court of Arbitration Secretary General Alexander Fessas, retired Judge Louis Meisinger (Signature Resolution), former National Political Director Amanda Renteria, noted Supreme Court experts USC Gould Professor Rebecca Brown and UCLA Law Professor Eugene Volokh, noted political and media strategist Professor Dan Schnur (USC Annenberg and UC Berkeley), the Chief Legal Officers of Amazon Studios, Foundation Building Materials, MALDEF, Oaktree Capital Management, Peninsula Pacific, The Trade Desk, and VCA, and many other prominent in house and outside practitioners.

Exceptional Networking with Hundreds of Experienced Professionals

Meet, reconnect and learn from your peers at five networking events – including a special breakfast session and networking cocktail party.

Practical Advice and Take-Aways

You need to understand your clients' economic and business environment to properly represent them. To that end, the Institute focuses on new developments in law, business and politics that affect business and legal professionals in Southern California and provides insight into best practices and changes in the law that impact local and national business operations.

Who Should Attend?

The Institute is crafted to meet the needs of in house counsel and those professionals who work with them, including: outside attorneys • accountants • compliance officers • consultants • corporate officers and directors • diversity officers • financial planners • HR professionals • investors • legal administrators • legal assistants • legal technology specialists • librarians • litigation support professionals.

Who Are We?

The Institute for Corporate Counsel is a collaboration of the USC Gould School of Law and the Los Angeles County Bar Association Corporate Law Departments Section. For more than 35 years, the Institute has been the premier annual event at which in house and outside counsel gather to compare notes, keep abreast of key legal developments and network with colleagues.

FEATURED Speakers

JUSTICE MING W. CHIN
CALIFORNIA SUPREME COURT

JUSTICE MING W. CHIN was appointed to the California Supreme Court in March 1996. Before being named to the high court, Justice Chin served from 1990 to 1996 on the First District Court of Appeal, Division Three, San Francisco. Prior to his appointment to the Court of Appeal, he served on the bench of the Alameda County Superior Court. Previously, Justice Chin was a partner in an Oakland law firm specializing in business and commercial litigation and also served as a prosecutor in the Alameda County District Attorney's office. Justice Chin earned his bachelor and law degrees from the University of San Francisco. He also served two years as a Captain in the U.S. Army, including a year in Vietnam, where he was awarded the Army Commendation Medal and the Bronze Star.

Justice Chin is the Vice Chair of the California Judicial Council and has chaired the Council's Commission for Impartial Courts, Court Technology Advisory Committee, and Science and the Law Steering Committee. In 2009, he was named California Jurist of the Year by the Judicial Council. Justice Chin frequently lectures on DNA, genetics and the courts and is the author of two California Practice Guides: Employment Litigation (The Rutter Group 2017) and Forensic DNA Evidence: Science and the Law (The Rutter Group 2017).

HON. MARIA CONTRERAS-SWEET
FORMER ADMINISTRATOR, U.S. SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (2014-2017)
MANAGING PARTNER, ROCKWAY EQUITY PARTNERS

MARIA CONTRERAS-SWEET was sworn in as a member of President Obama's cabinet as the 24th Administrator of the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) serving through January 20, 2017. Prior to that, she started three businesses, including ProAmerica Bank in downtown Los Angeles, focused on small and mid-size businesses, where she served as its founding executive chairwoman and successfully steering it through the great recession. Earlier she served as the California cabinet Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, where she oversaw 44,000 employees, a $14 billion budget, and 14 state departments. She is also a founding director of The California Endowment. She served on the original Federal Glass Ceiling Commission, educating the corporate community about eliminating artificial barriers for women and minorities in the workplace. She has served on numerous boards and is currently serving on the Board of Sempra Energy. She has been bestowed several honorary doctorates including from Tufts University, Whittier College and California State University, Los Angeles. Today, Secretary Contreras-Sweet is the Managing Partner of Rockway Equity Partners, investing in technology, manufacturing and infrastructure-related companies.

Luncheon Presentation:
How Boards Can Influence
Corporate Culture

According to the National Association of Corporate Directors, “corporate culture can no longer be considered as a soft issue by management and boards. Its strength or weakness has a lasting impact on organizational performance and reputation. The oversight of culture must be a key board responsibility, as it is inextricably linked with strategy, CEO selection, and risk oversight.” Join two Sempra Energy board members, Secretary Maria Contreras-Sweet and Professor William Ouchi, in a 30 minute conversation on how boards can influence corporate culture to drive innovation, growth, market leadership, ethical behavior, employee engagement and customer satisfaction.
