

Information about the Southern California Interdisciplinary Law Journal

Views expressed in the articles or notes published in the Southern California Interdisciplinary Law Journal are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the policies or opinions of the Journal, its editors and staff, or the University of Southern California.

Submissions

The Journal is pleased to consider for publication articles that analyze legal issues from the perspective of other scholarly disciplines. Authors are thus invited to send such manuscripts to the Journal's Submissions Editors at the address listed below. Submissions are also welcomed electronically via e-mail or Scholastica; see our web page for electronic submission information.

The text and citations of such submissions should generally conform to the most recent editions of The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation and The Chicago Manual of Style. However, the Journal recognizes that authors specializing in other disciplines are often unfamiliar with the system of legal citation espoused by The Bluebook, and articles will be edited to ensure conformance if accepted. In addition, the Journal endorses a policy of gender neutrality in legal scholarship and may revise an article to use gender-specific language in accordance with this policy. Use of gender-neutral language in articles published by the Journal reflects support of this policy and is not necessarily indicative of the authors' policies or opinions. Unfortunately, submissions cannot be returned unless postage is provided.

Subscriptions

The Journal is published three to four times annually. Subscriptions are $25.00 per year ($34.00 for international subscriptions). The current issue of the Journal is also available for $12.50 per copy. Please note that subscriptions are automatically renewed unless notice of cancellation is received prior to renewal. Also note that claims for non-receipt of issues must be made within six months of the mailing date, or the issue cannot be resent free of charge. Any correspondence regarding subscriptions or single-issue purchases, including change of address information, should be addressed to the Journal's Business Manager at the address listed below.

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Southern California Interdisciplinary Law Journal invites you to submit an article or book review for publication. While we prefer articles that employ multidisciplinary legal analysis—such as, law and economics, law and sociology, or law and medicine—we also consider traditional law review articles. We encourage submissions by legal scholars, as well as non-legal scholars, professionals, and other writers.

Although we publish articles in standard law review format, authors may submit articles for consideration in any format. Our editors will work with authors after acceptance to conform all entries to our requirements.

Please send submissions to: ilj@lawmail.usc.edu
Paper submissions are also welcomed and may be directed to:
