

Inaugural USC Gould Law and AI Summit

 February 26, 2027  USC University Park Campus

Where law meets the future of AI.

The inaugural USC Gould Law & AI Summit brings together leading legal minds, technologists, and policymakers for one day of essential programming at the intersection of artificial intelligence, law, and industry. Gain insight into the forces reshaping the legal landscape, identify emerging opportunities for your clients and institutions, and engage with the attorneys, scholars, executives, and decision-makers defining what comes next.

Who Should Attend?

The Summit is designed for professionals across sectors, including:

- AI and technology attorneys
- In-house counsel and corporate legal teams
- Policymakers and regulatory professionals
- Legal scholars and academics
- Tech executives and product leaders
- Intellectual property and data privacy specialists
